Background

You recently visited your university's career fair where you met and spoke with Sam from Penske. Sam noted that there were entry level positions available including Sales and Operations Management Trainee where you develop consumer and commercial customer solutions to local and national accounts. After the career fair, you applied to Penske's Sales and Operations Management

Trainee position online. You were one of the candidates selected to interview for the position! Now you are looking to research the company more and prepare for the interview.

Scenario

You will have 10 minutes to prove to the interviewer that you are a good fit for the position of Sales and Operations Management Trainee at Penske. Background research on Penske will be helpful to prove your knowledge of the company's operations and what they value in job candidates. The full job listing and duties are linked here:
